

CITY ESTABLISHED

MODESTO ARCHITECTURE

COLORING & ACTIVITY BOOK

2020

ISSUE DATE

EIGHTEEN SEVENTY

ESTABLISHED

MODESTO ARCHITECTURE

EIGHTEEN SEVENTY

COLORING & ACTIVITY BOOK

The Modesto Architecture Coloring and Activity Book contains activities for you to enjoy and illustrations of several Modesto buildings for you to color. The buildings are not identified so you can try to find them as you travel around town. (Hint: there is a key on the last page.)

The Modesto Architecture Coloring and Activity Book is a project of the Modesto Art Museum, the Sierra Valley Chapter of the American Institute of Architects, and the California Sierra Chapter of the American Society of Landscape Architects.

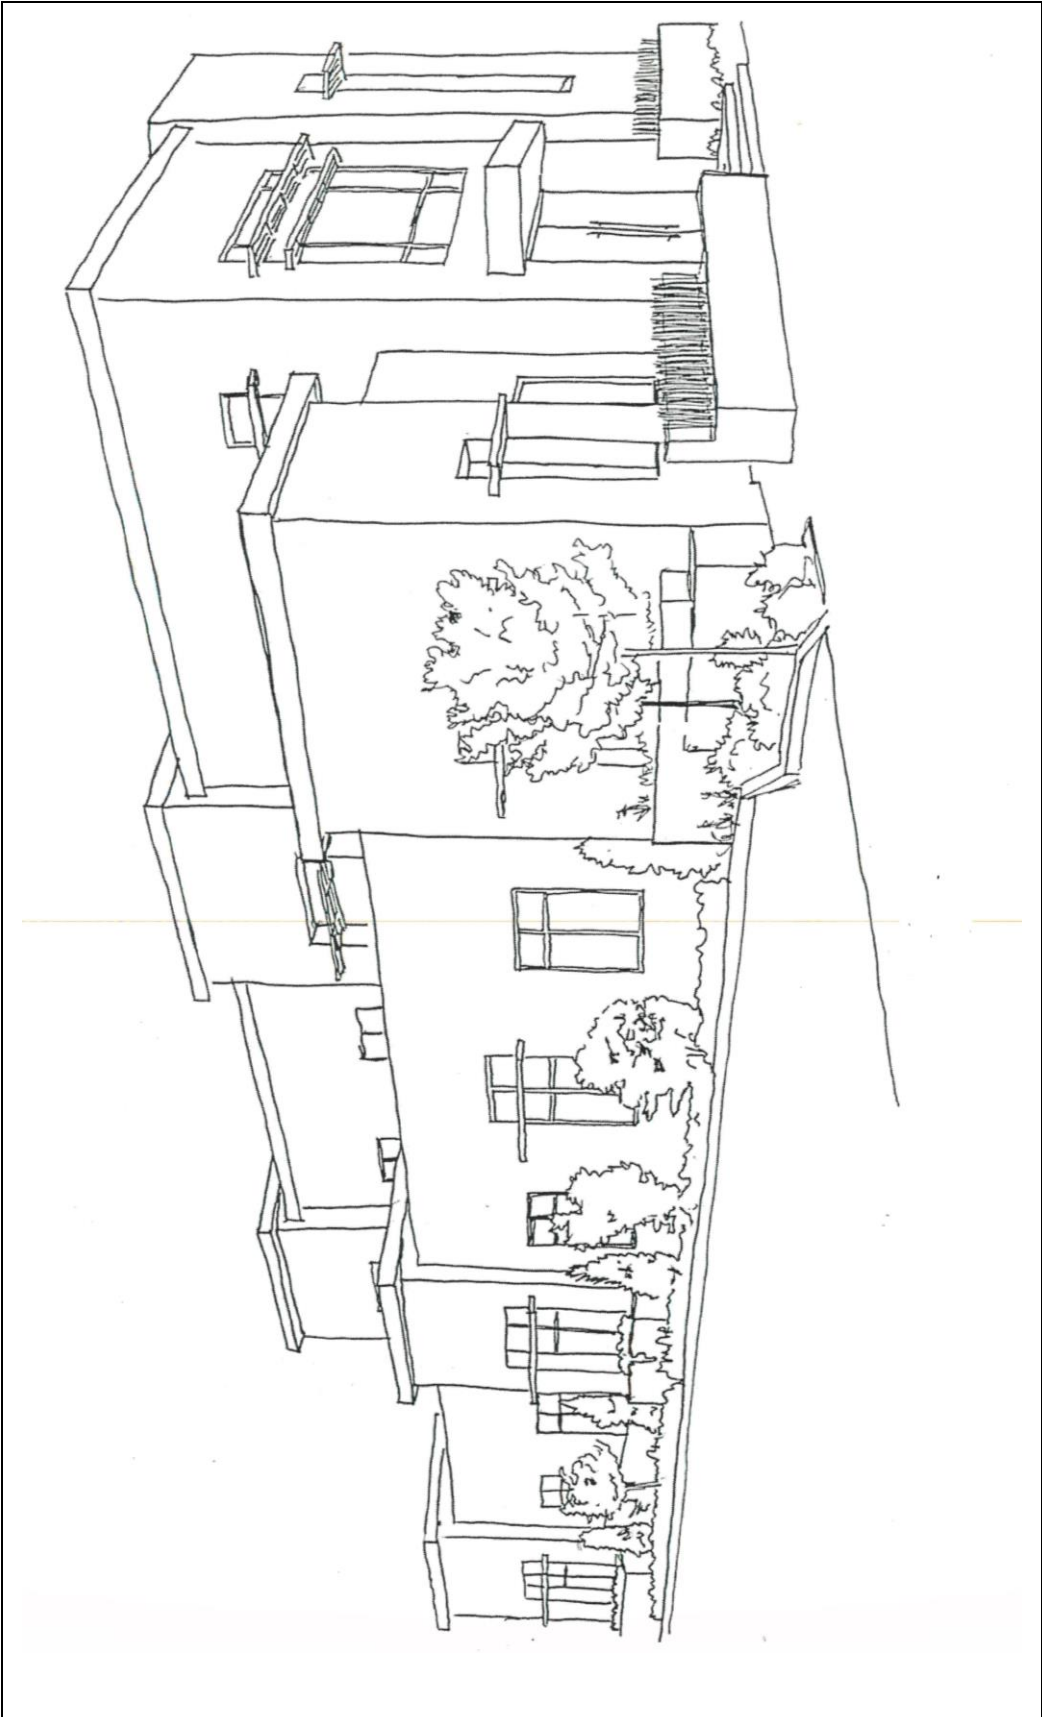

The book is under a Creative Commons License that allows you to make as many copies as you like for your personal use. Teachers are encouraged to make copies for use in school lessons.

Illustrations and Graphics

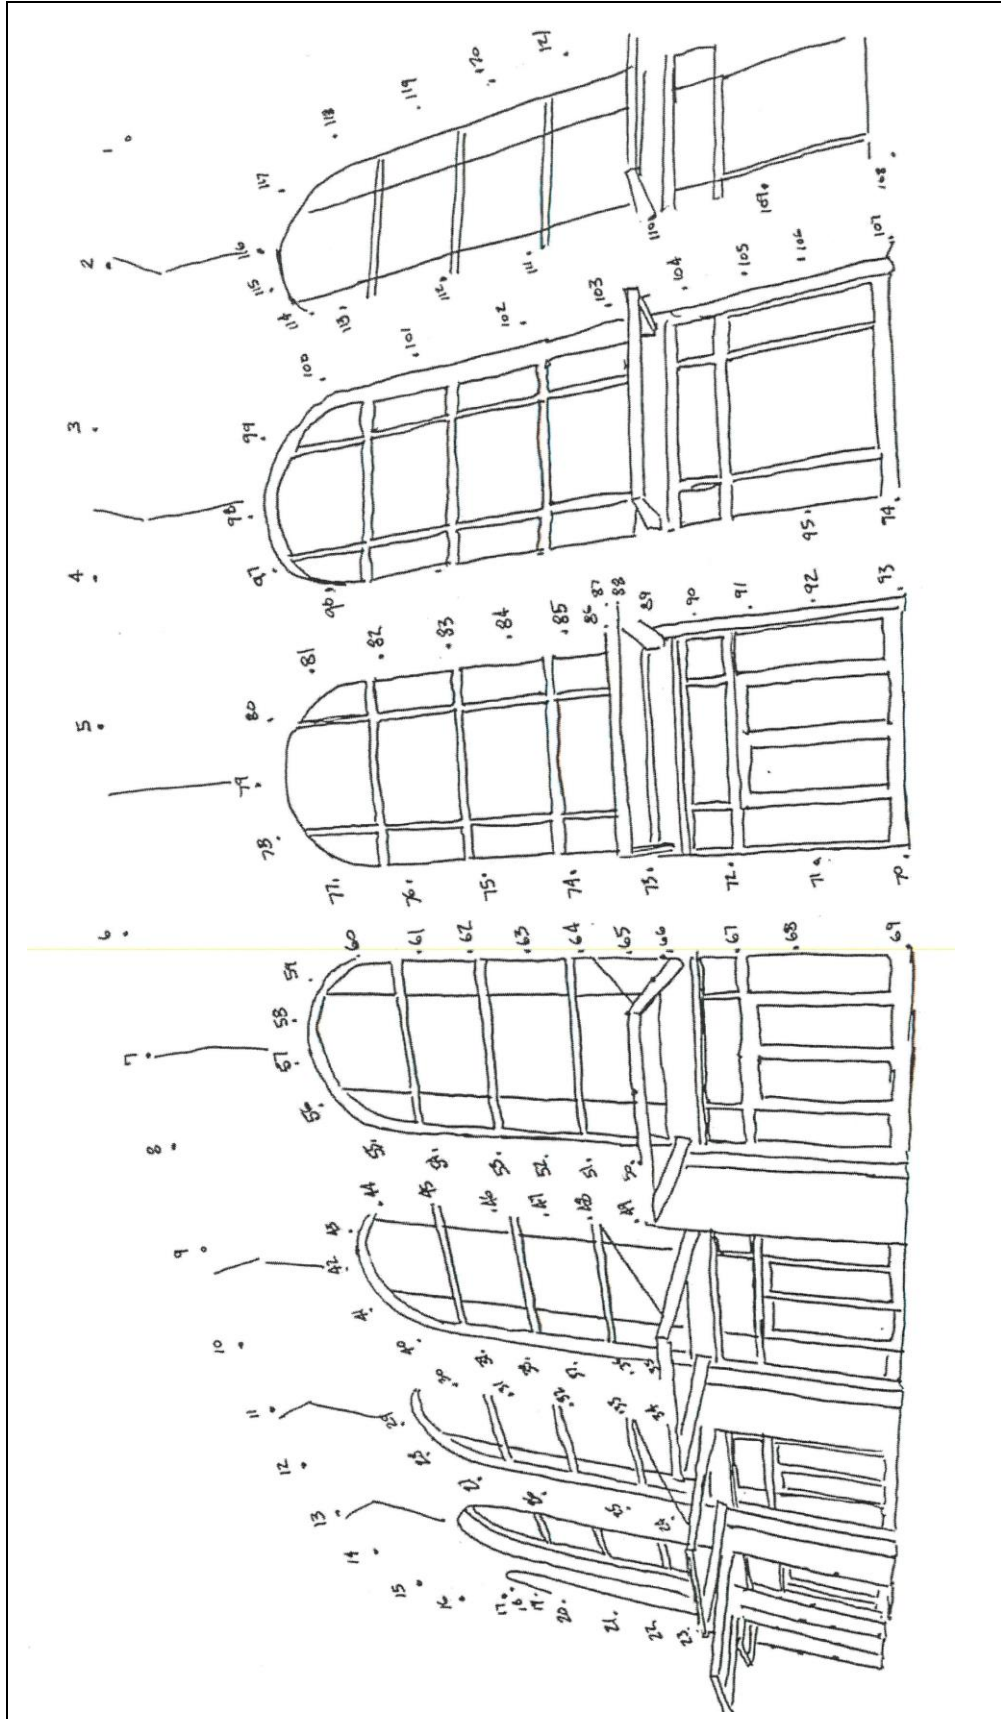

David Burkett, AIA
Chad Kennedy, ASLA
Heather Collins, Assoc. AIA
Jordi Camps

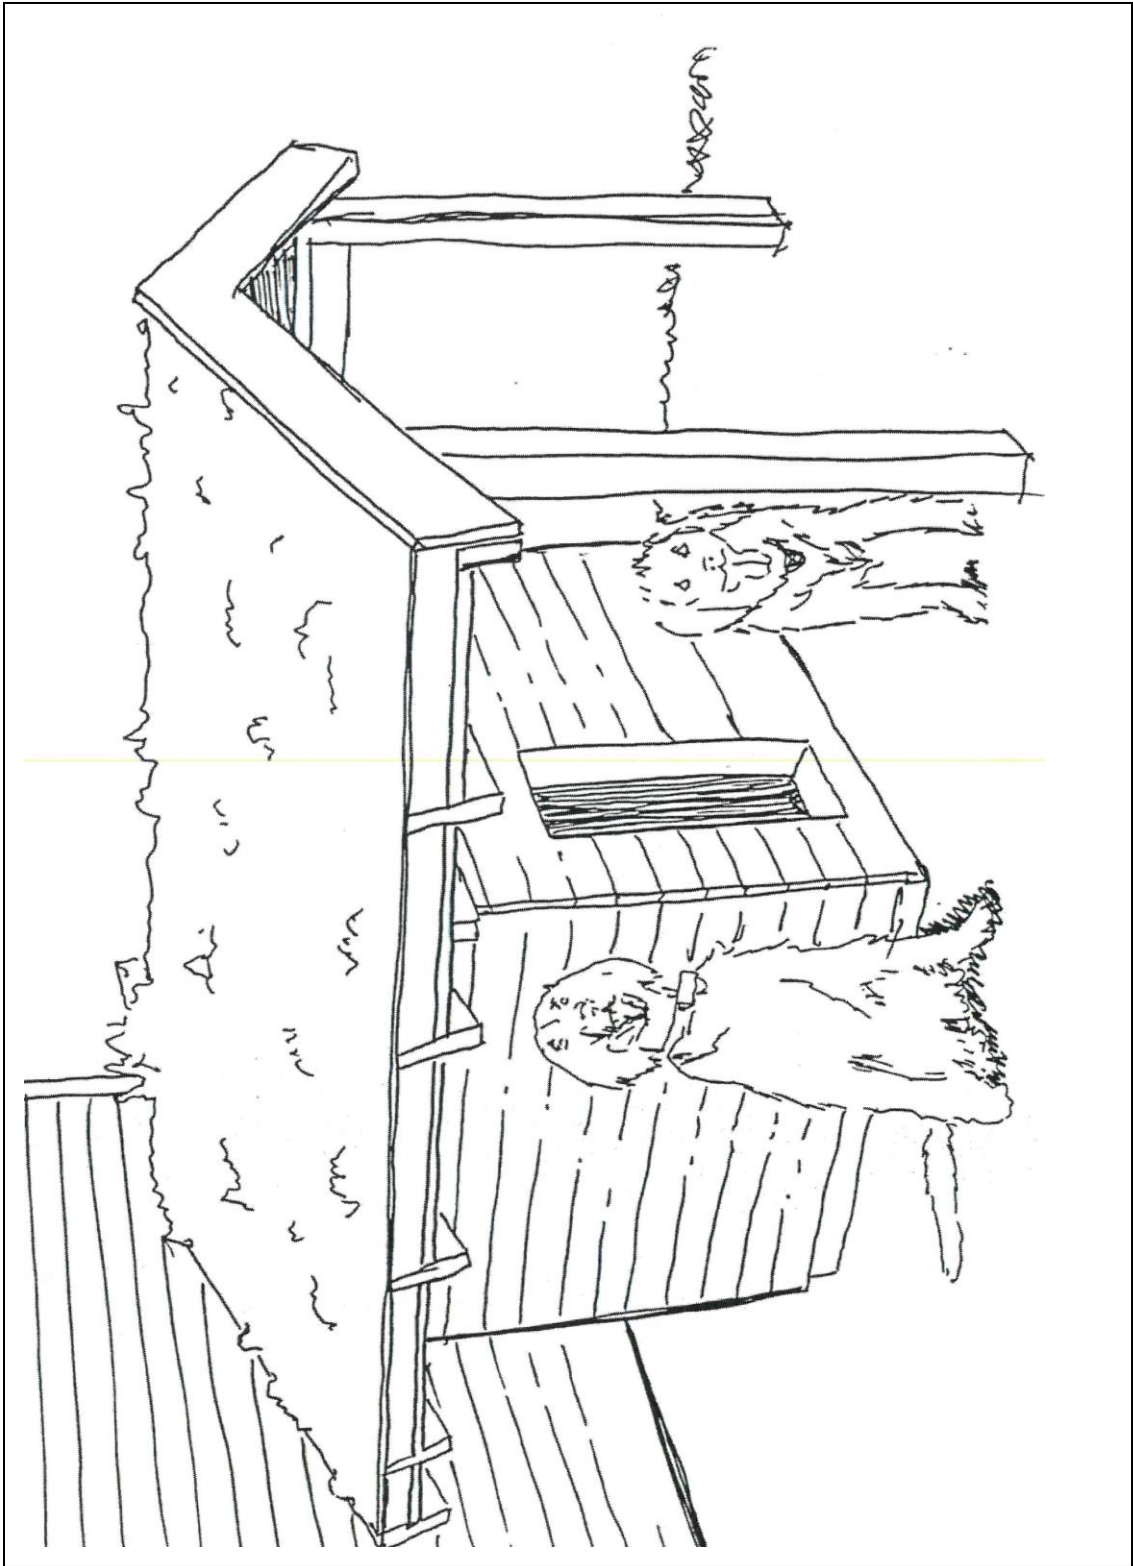

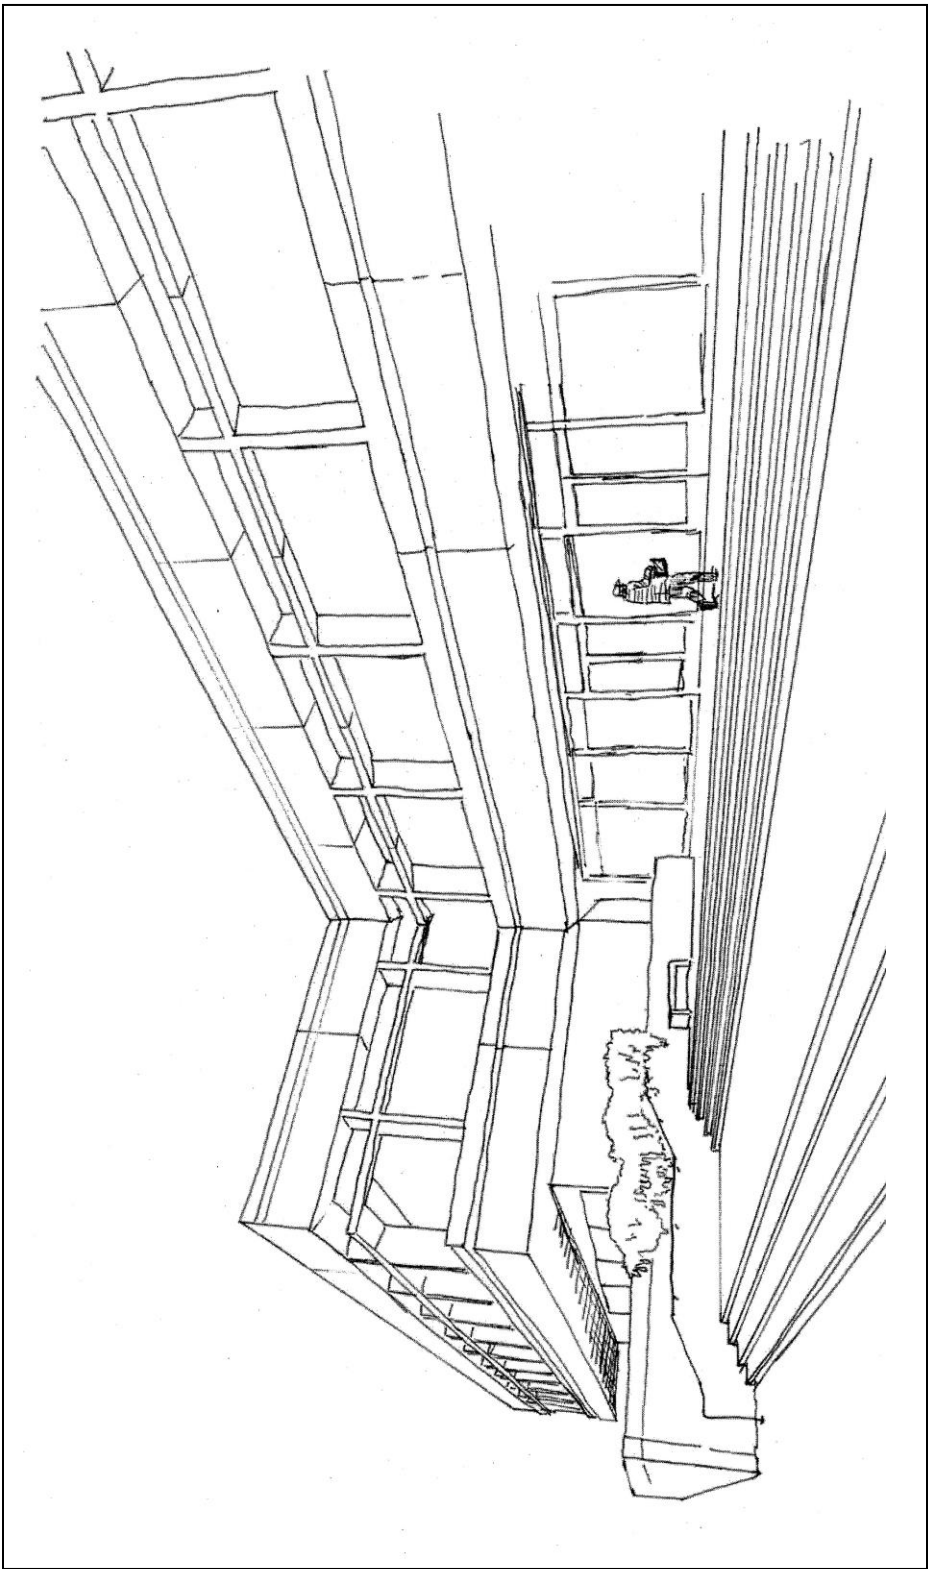

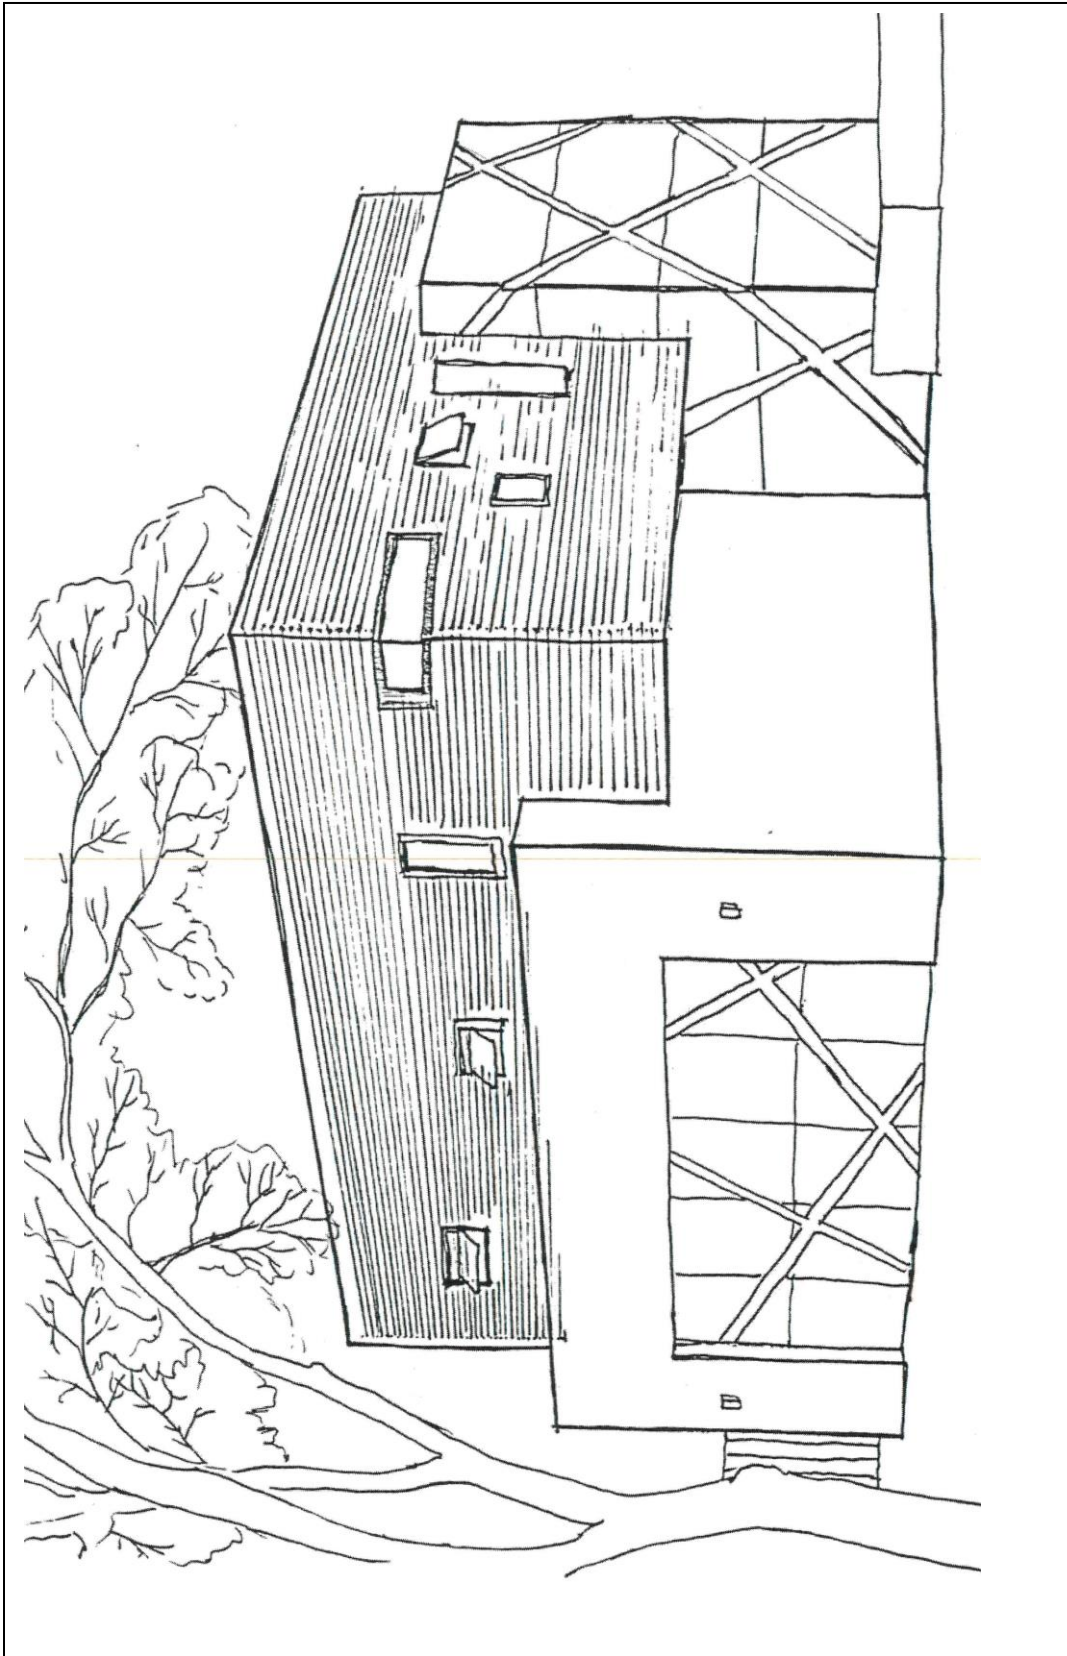

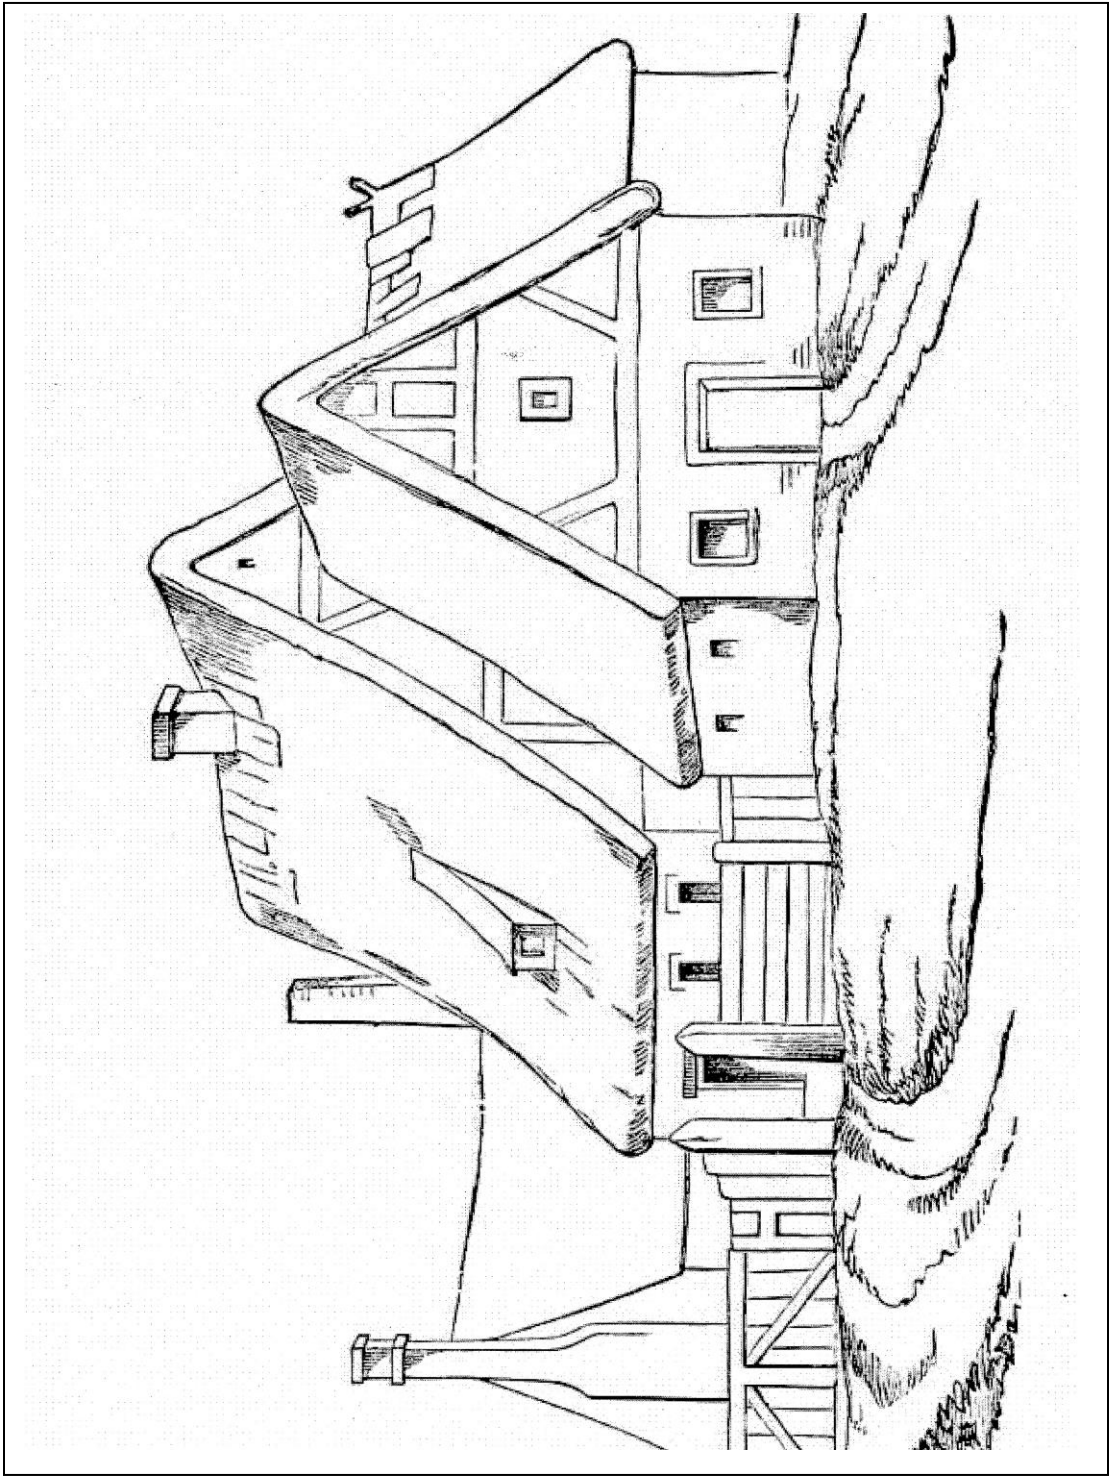

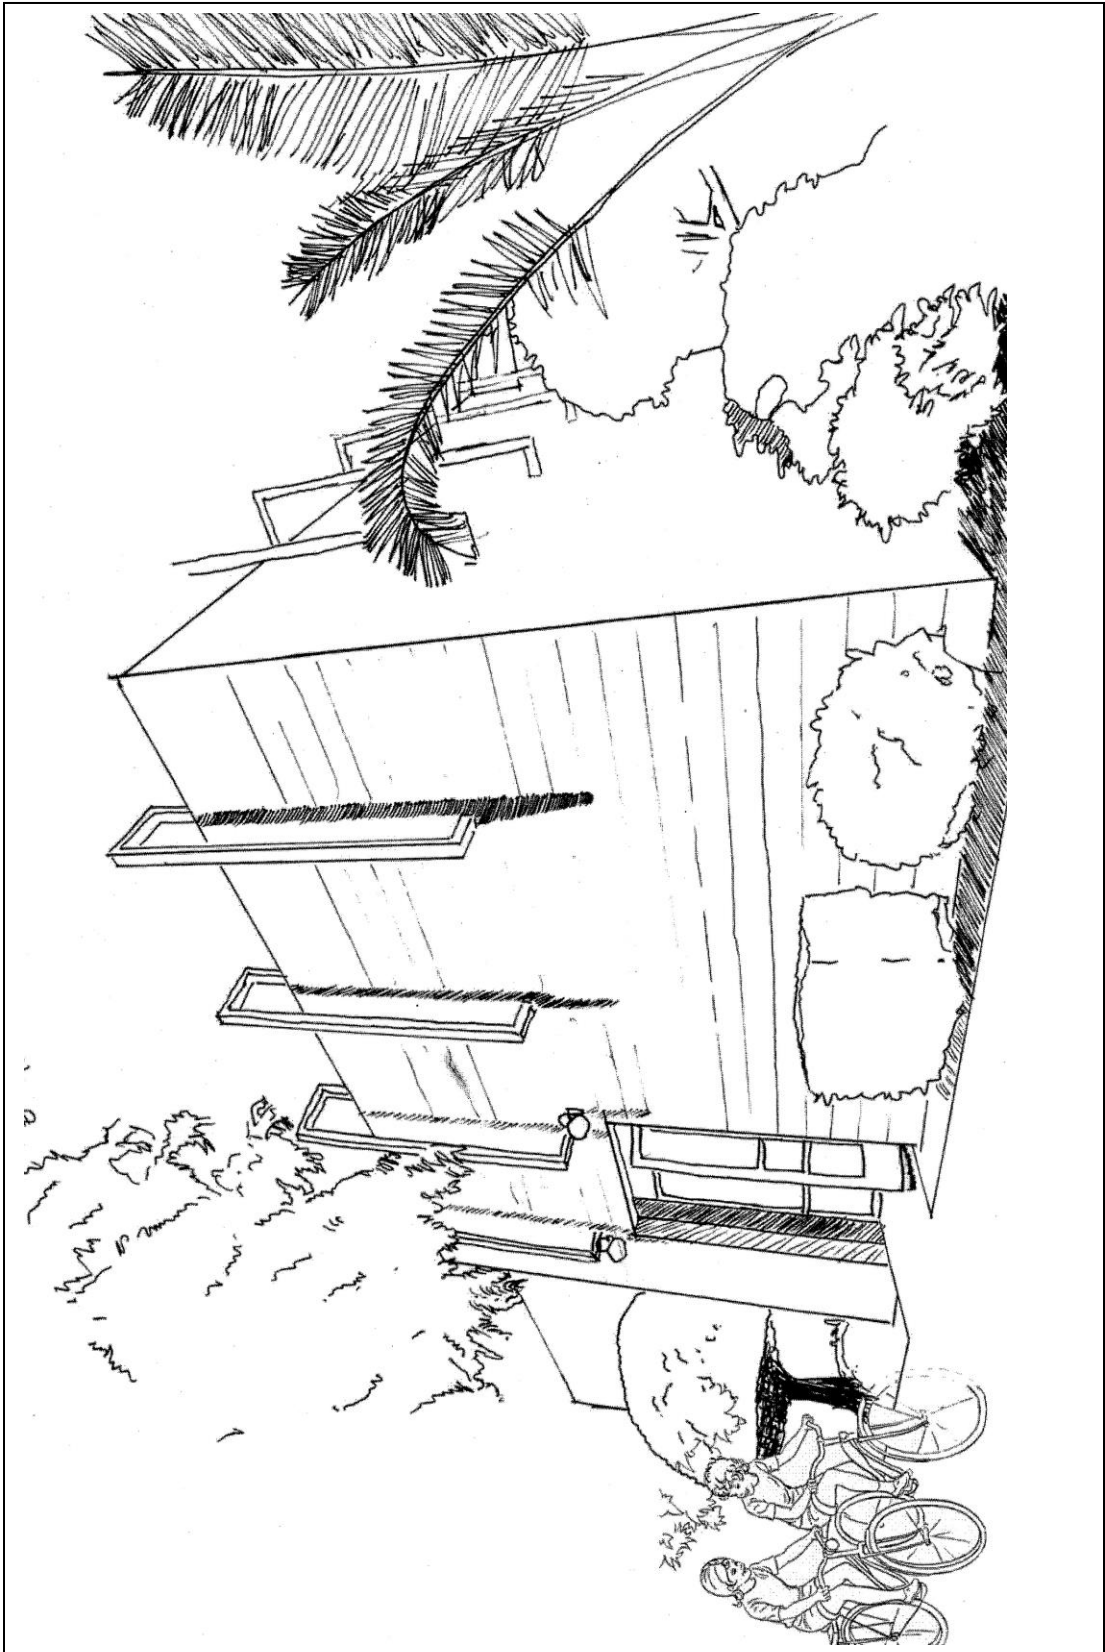

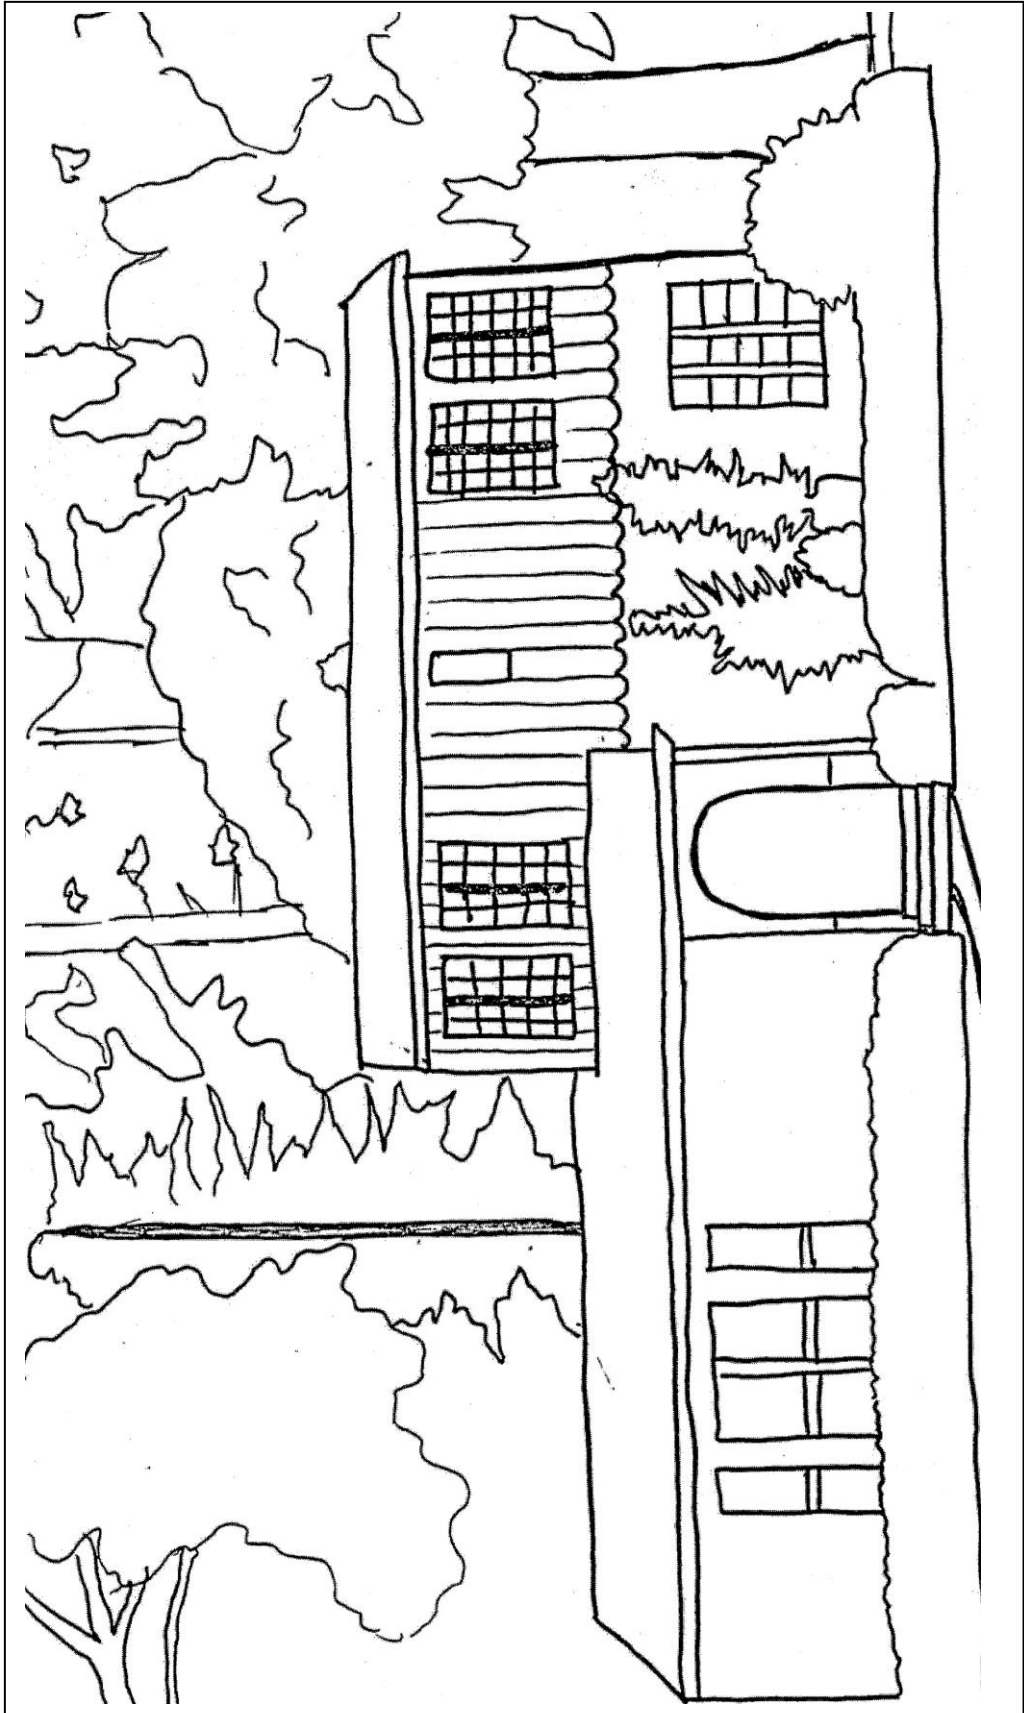

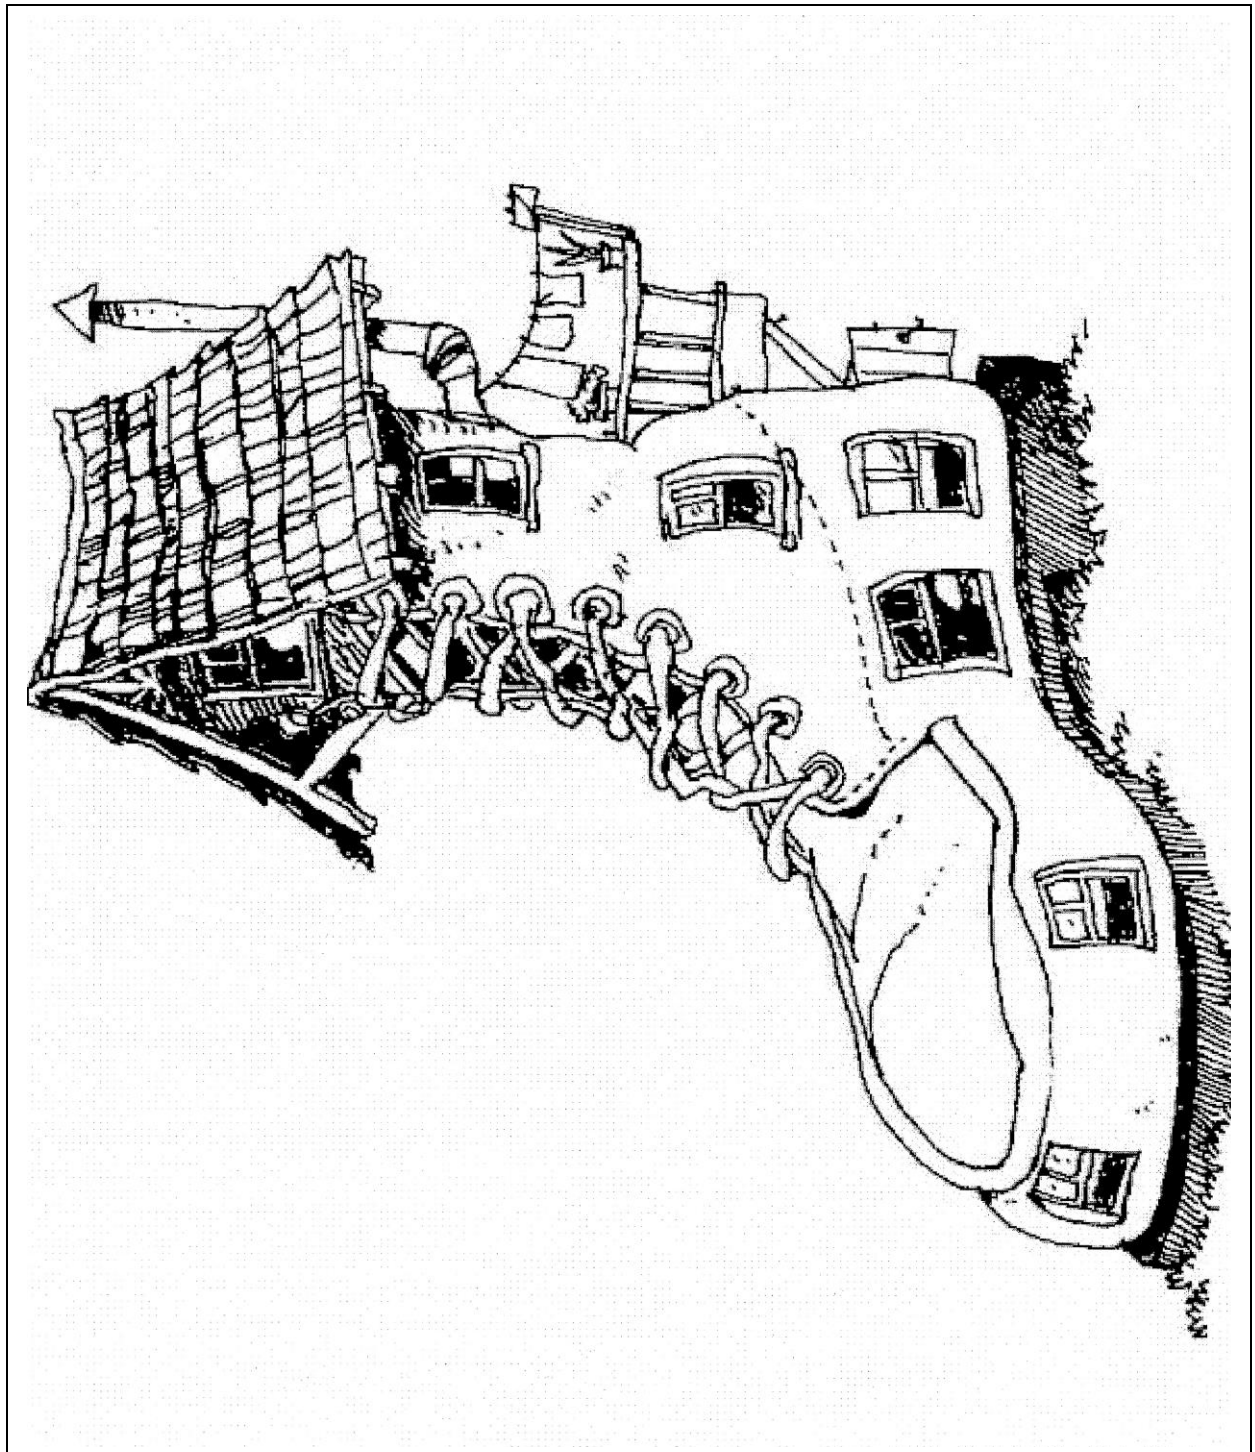

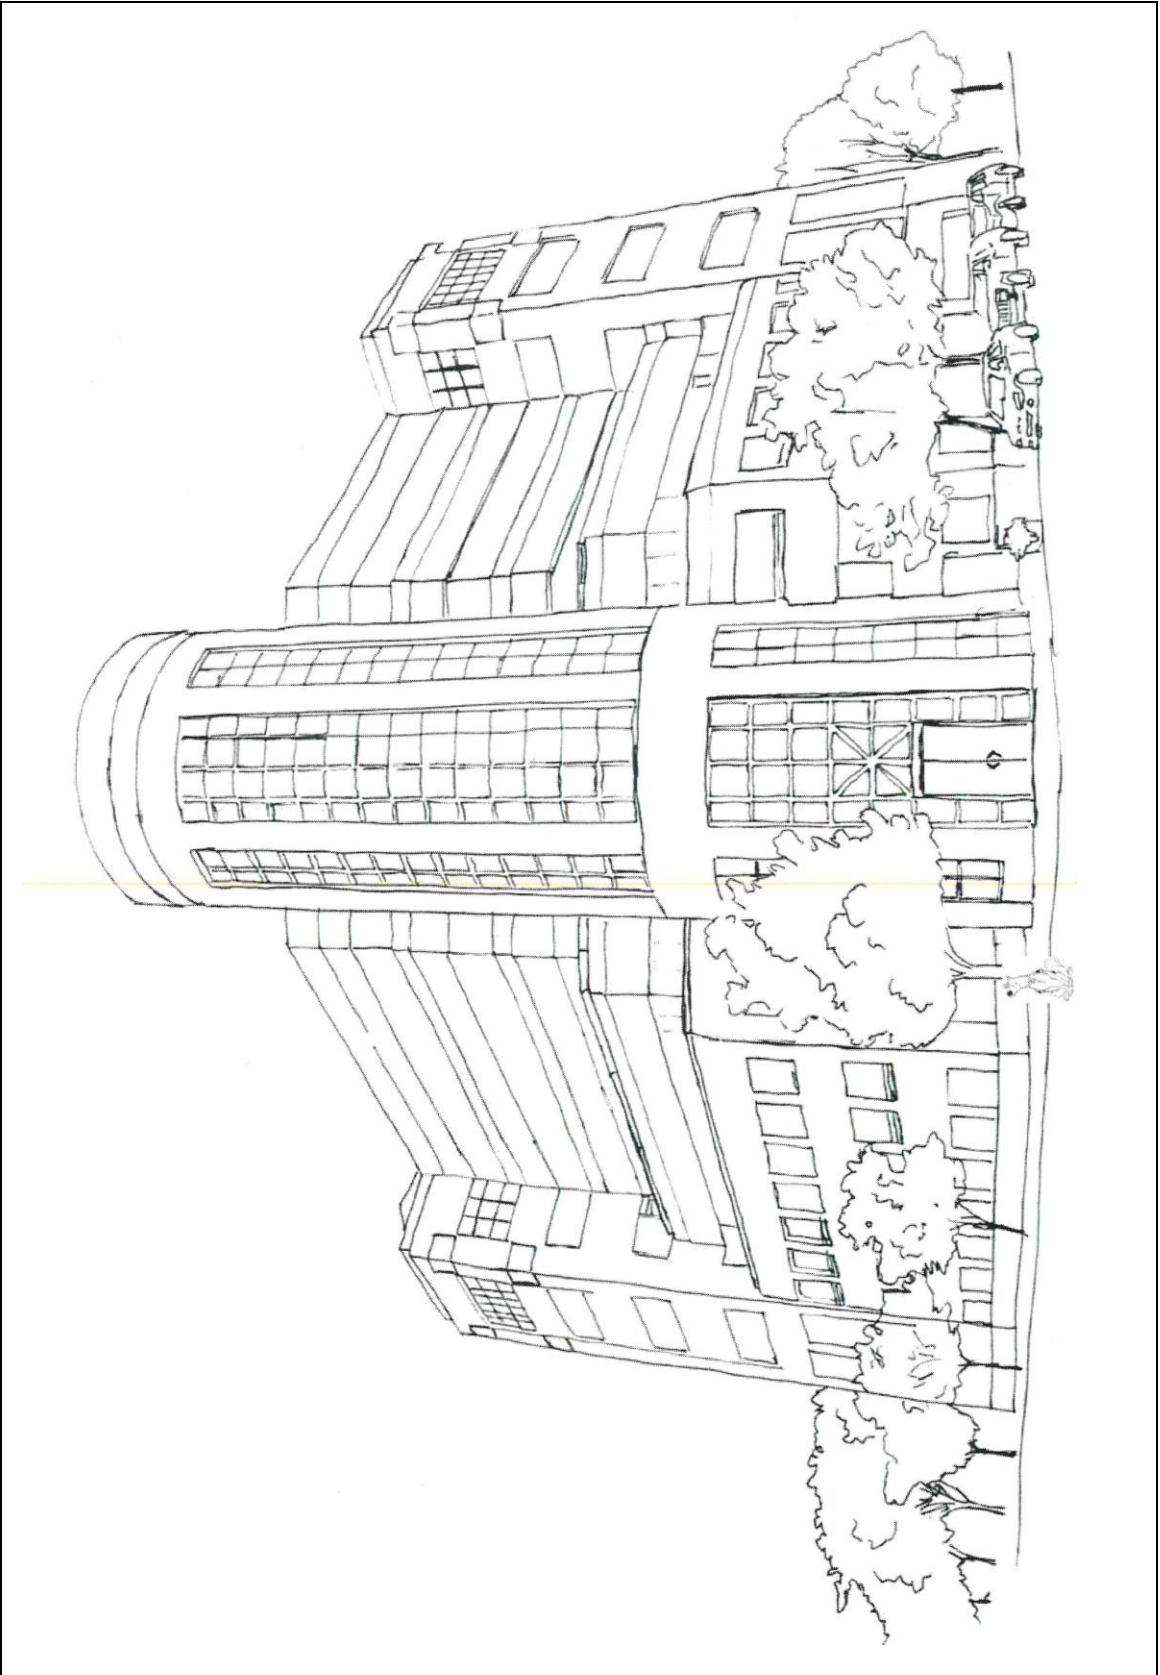

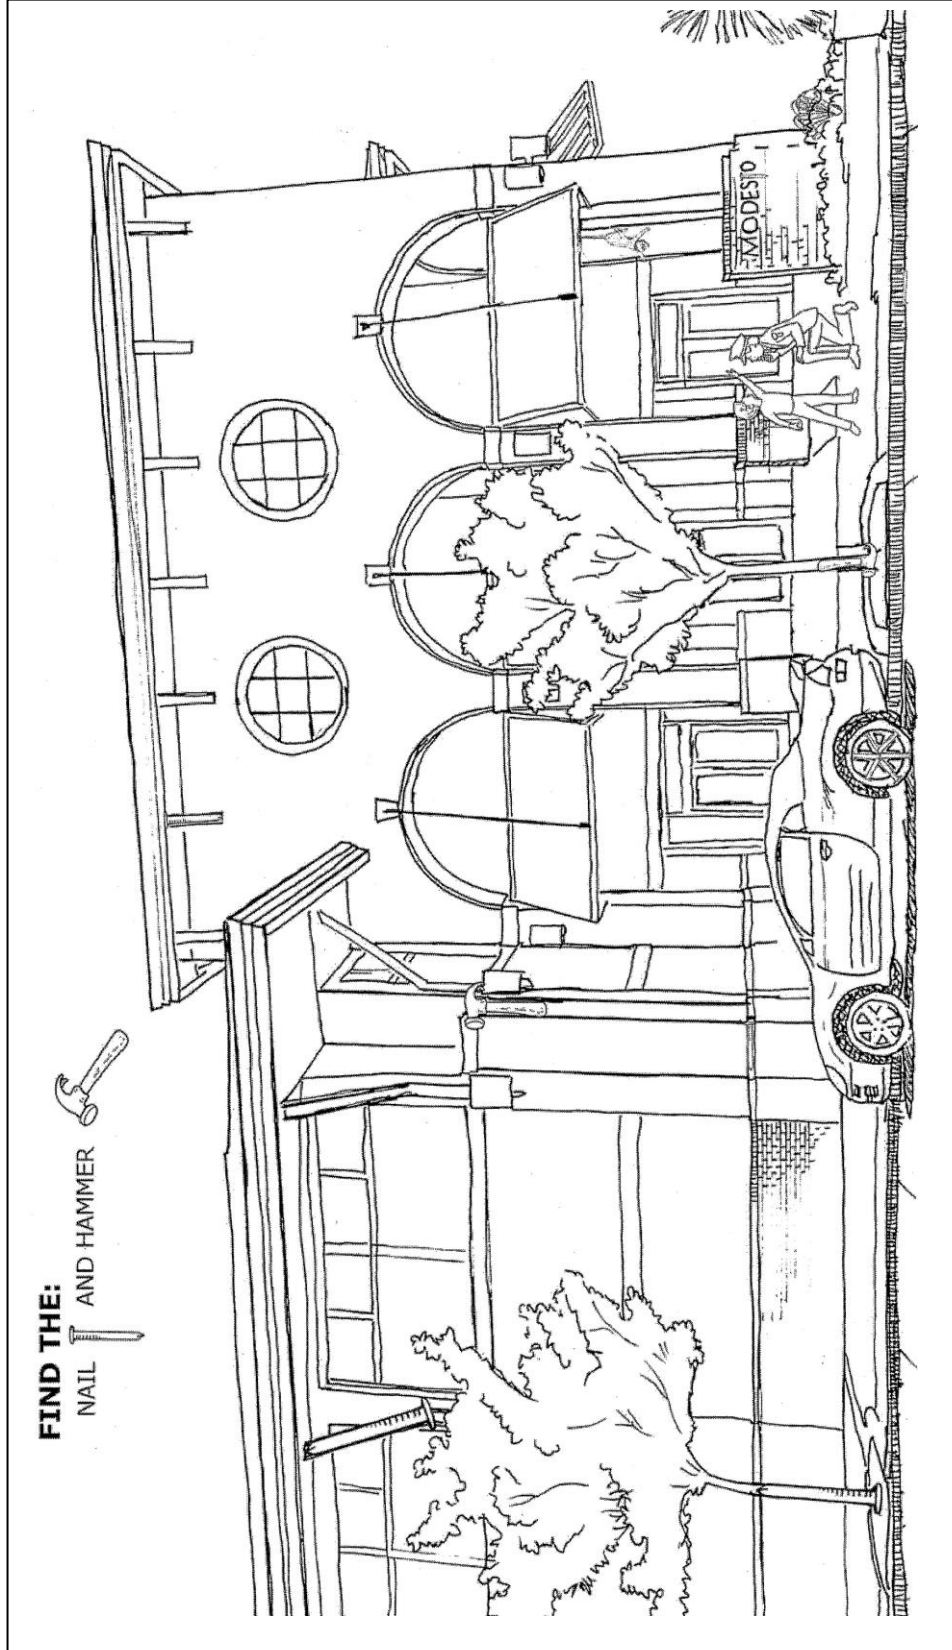

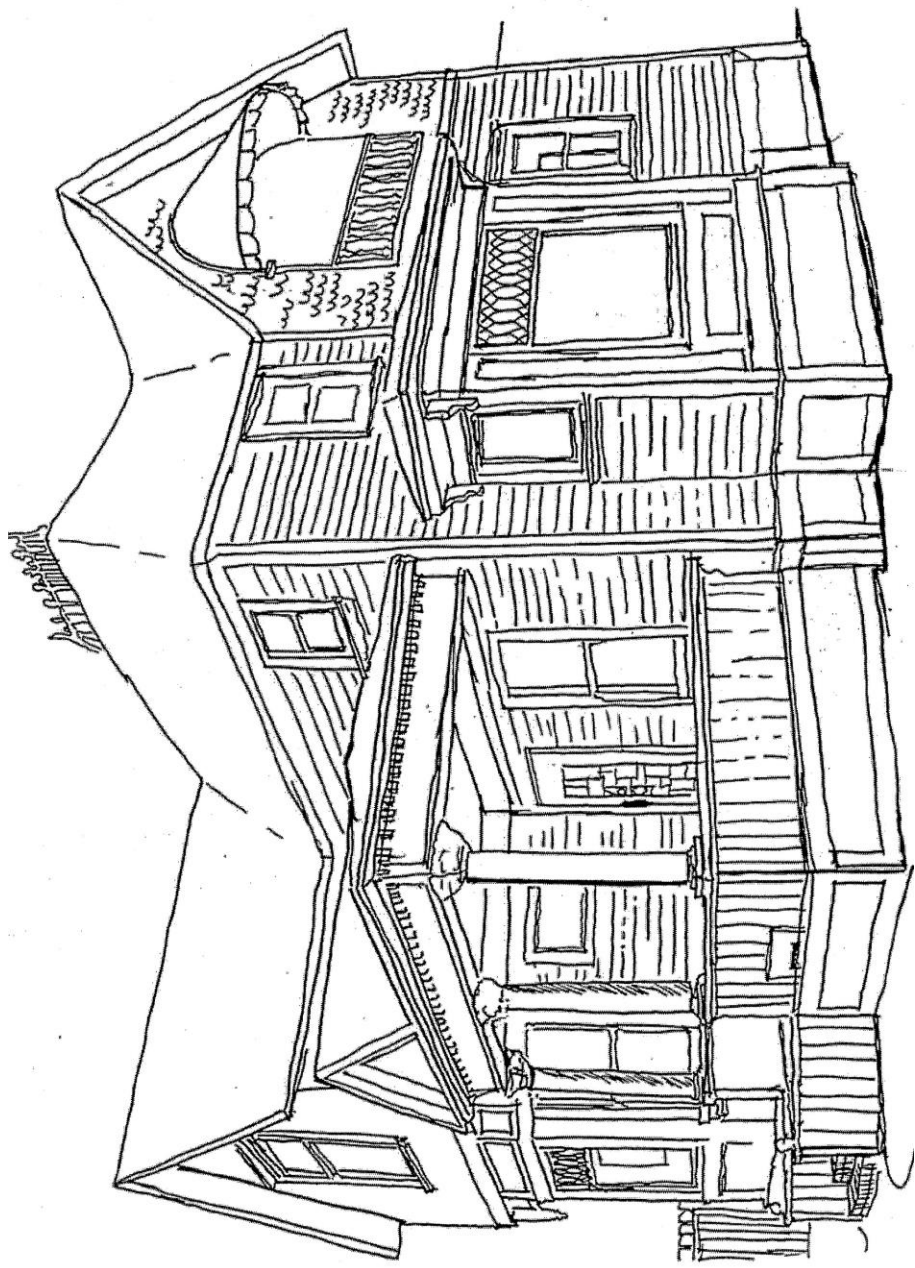

FIND THE:

AND HAMMER

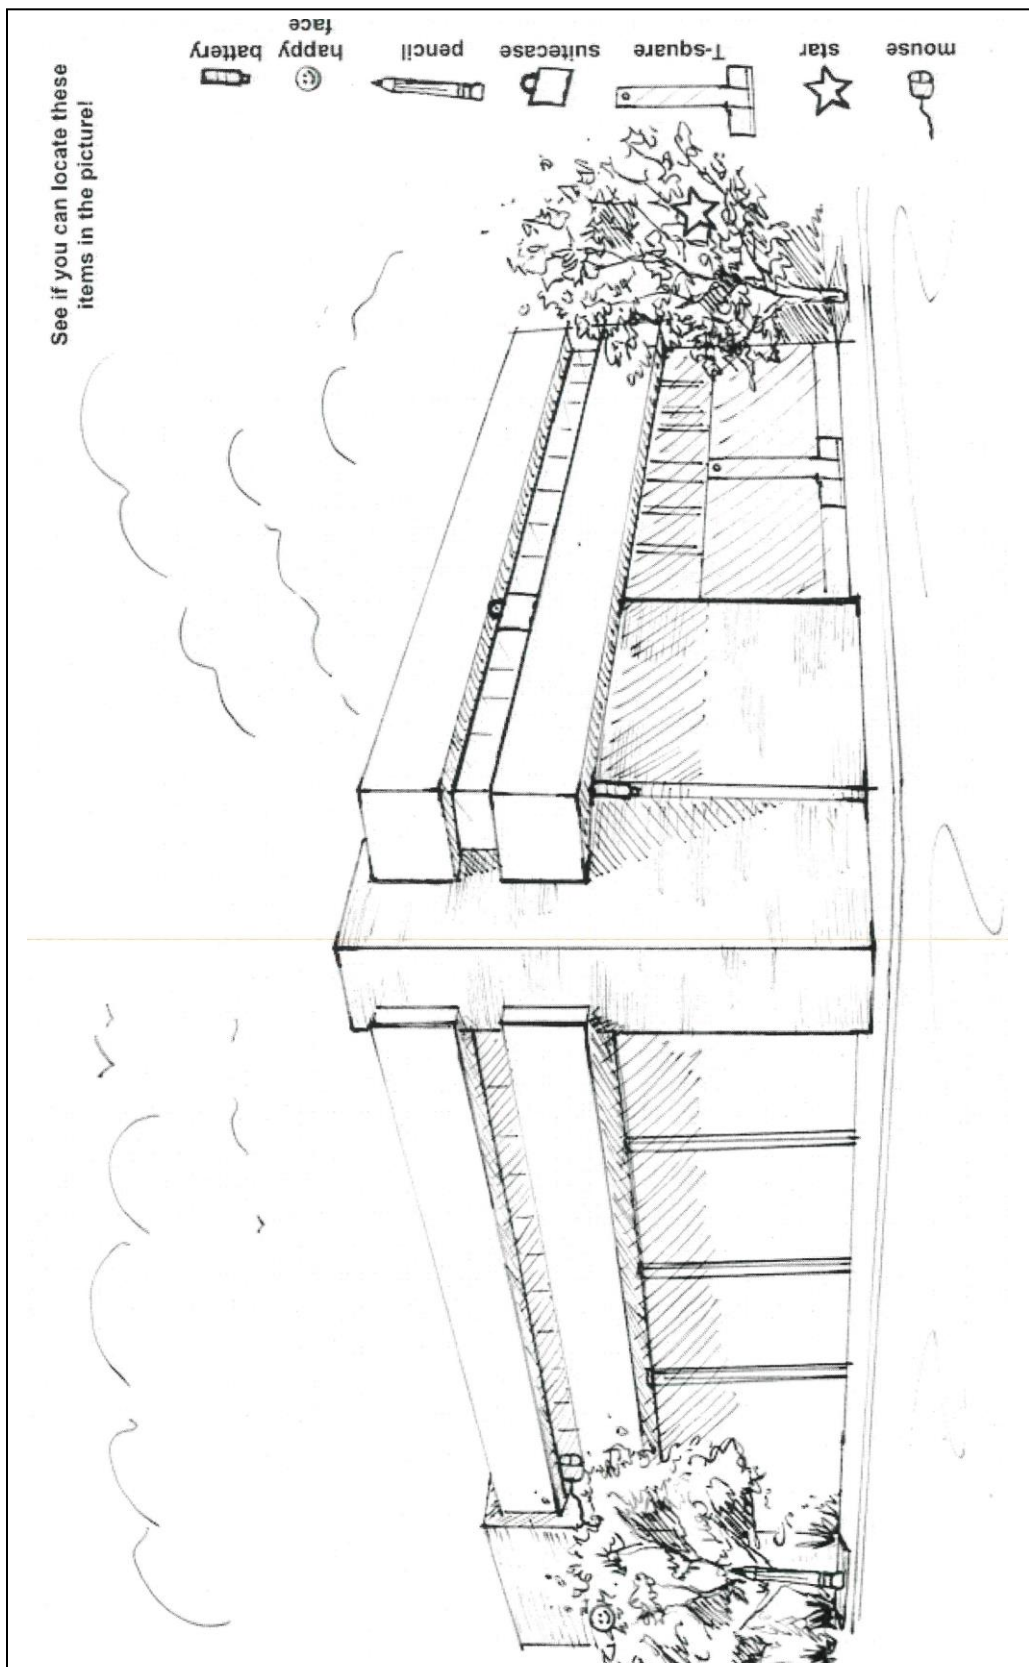

Draw Your Home

See if you can locate these items in the picture!

mouse
star T-square suitcase pencil happy face battery

ESTABLISHED

MODESTO ARCHITECTURE

EIGHTEEN SEVENTY

COLORING & ACTIVITY BOOK

Key to buildings, in order from the beginning of the coloring book

Southern Pacific Railroad Depot at 9th and J Street, John Quincy Barlow, 1915

Storybook House on Elmwood Court, William Yelland, 1929

Office Building on 13th Street, designed by API

Office Building on 14th Street, designed by L Street Architects

Gallo Center for the Arts Building, Nestor and Gaffney Architecture

Dog House

Stanislaus County Education Building on H Street, designed by Nacht and Lewis, 1976

Garage on Magnolia at West Morris

Garden Gate on Kirkwood Avenue

Fantasy House

Office Building at 14th and K Street

Office Building on 10th Street

House on Sycamore designed by Russell DeLappe

Fantasy Shoe House

City Tower Building at 10th and H Street

Modesto Police Department at 10th and G

Victorian House at Orangeburg and Tully

Your House

Office Building at 11th and I Street

Modesto Architecture Coloring and Activity Book by Modesto Art

Museum is licensed under CC BY-NC-SA 4.0. To view a copy of this license, visit <https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc-sa/4.0>.